Engagement for Sericulture Assistant (Contract Basis)

Central Silk Board (CSB) is a Statutory body established in 1948 by an Act of Parliament. It is working under the administrative control of Ministry of Textiles, Government of India.

The Central Silk Board is the apex national organization responsible for the overall development of the silk sector in India, covering the entire value chain from research and development, seed production, extension, quality certification, training, technology transfer, and policy support in both pre-cocoon and post-cocoon sectors.

CSB operates through a network of Research Institutes, Regional Offices, Seed Organizations, Training Centre's and Field Units spread across various silk-producing States and Union Territories. The Board plays a pivotal role in supporting State Governments, farmers, reelers, weavers and entrepreneurs by providing scientific, technical and advisory services for sustainable growth of the silk industry.

In view of the mandated functions and time-bound operational requirements, the Central Silk Board, from time to time, engages technical and supporting manpower on a contractual basis to meet urgent and essential needs. Such engagements are purely temporary and contractual, intended to ensure continuity of critical activities, and do not constitute regular employment under the Government of India.
